

Siegel's Cottonwood Farm gets ready for its 28th Pumpkin Fest

Lockport (IL), September 2018 - - Siegel's Cottonwood Farm – a fourth generation working family farm since 1909 – is getting ready to open its doors for its 28th annual Pumpkin Fest.

Finding innovative new ways for you to enjoy visiting and spending time out in the country fresh air each year, this season they invite you to get lost in their 15-acre Superman Corn Maze, take a hayride out to the U- Pick Pumpkin Field, pet and feed farm animals, enjoy Ziplines & Giant Slides and over 30 other attractions – all included in your admission – as well as a delicious array of food available throughout the farm, like Turkey Legs, Burgers, Chicken, Funnel Cakes, Famous Apple Cider Donuts & more.

Located just 35 miles outside Chicago, Siegel's Cottonwood Farm is a fun, family-friendly and affordable way to celebrate this Fall – the perfect place to harvest memories with your friends and family.

Kaity Siegel, Managing Director of the farm, says: “I am super excited to see all of the returning faces this fall season – and to welcome even more new ones, as we enter our 28th Pumpkin Fest – each one sure to leave with a big smile and maybe exhausted!”
